Every child deserves a champion: an adult who will never give up on him or her, who understands the power of connection and insists the child become the best he or she can possibly be. —-Rita Pierson

Homeroom Teacher: _____

Name _____

At my school, I feel _____ is my
(Name of Advocate)
advocate. This person is someone who supports me and is someone who I can go to for advice or encouragement.

_____ I do not feel that I have an advocate at school.

Ideas: Teacher, Principal, Assistant Principal, Counselor, Media Specialist, Nurse, Custodian, Receptionist, Secretary, Bus Driver, Cafeteria Worker, anyone else who works at the school.

Every child deserves a champion: an adult who will never give up on him or her, who understands the power of connection and insists the child become the best he or she can possibly be. —-Rita Pierson

Homeroom Teacher: _____

Name _____

At my school, I feel _____ is my
(Name of Advocate)
advocate. This person is someone who supports me and is someone who I can go to for advice or encouragement.

_____ I do not feel that I have an advocate at school.

Ideas: Teacher, Principal, Assistant Principal, Counselor, Media Specialist, Nurse, Custodian, Receptionist, Secretary, Bus Driver, Cafeteria Worker, anyone else who works at the school.