

Every child deserves a champion: an adult who will never give up on him or her, who understands the power of connection and insists the child become the best he or she can possibly be. —Rita Pierson

Homeroom Teacher: _____

Name _____

At my school, I feel _____ is my (Name of Advocate)
advocate. This person is someone who supports me and is someone who I can go to for advice or encouragement.

_____ I do not feel that I have an advocate at school.

Ideas: Teacher, Principal, Assistant Principal, Counselor, Media Specialist, Nurse, Custodian, Receptionist, Secretary, Bus Driver, Cafeteria Worker, anyone else who works at the school.

Every child deserves a champion: an adult who will never give up on him or her, who understands the power of connection and insists the child become the best he or she can possibly be. —Rita Pierson

Homeroom Teacher: _____

Name _____

At my school, I feel _____ is my (Name of Advocate)
advocate. This person is someone who supports me and is someone who I can go to for advice or encouragement.

_____ I do not feel that I have an advocate at school.

Ideas: Teacher, Principal, Assistant Principal, Counselor, Media Specialist, Nurse, Custodian, Receptionist, Secretary, Bus Driver, Cafeteria Worker, anyone else who works at the school.